“It makes me feel like it is a conquest to buy something that you like that is less than $50,” says the designer, whose firm is based in Lincoln. “It is a joy for me. And then I’ll spend thousands on something else, but anyway. . . .”

With the help of architect Sally Weston and builder Ralph Cataldo, Skok recently completed the construction of a new vacation home in West Falmouth. It is a house that suits her collecting style, she says, with 7,500 square feet of living space and plenty of built-in shelves and nooks to display her treasures. “I did say to myself at the end of this
